HORRIBLE MURDER.—On the night of November 17, Howard A. Cleve-land, a young man about twenty-five years of age, visited his friend War-ren George, at East Orrington, Me., for the purpose of passing the night. Some time during the night Cleve-land arose and out George's throat from ear to ear, nearly severing his head from his body. His mother, an old lady seventy years of age, then helped him to conceal the body in the cellar; after which they robbed the house and fled. The murder has but recently been discovered, and has created a great sensation, from its brutal nature. The old lady was arrested a few days since, and young Cleveland was apprehended in Boston on Friday night.—New York Times.

FAIR RETORT.—The Mobile Register regards it as especially unjust that the Northern papers have denounced the assassination of Pollard as "a characteristically Southern crime, (when the Southern press has univer-sally censured and denounced it,) and then collects accounts of several racter, perpetrated in this region, which have provoked scarcely a line of editorial comment. The retort is fair. Our criminal record is as black as that of the South, without as much incentive or provocation. incentive or provocation.

The Burlingame mission has com-menced its deliberations. The re-cent act of violence committed in the cent act of violence committed in the Chinese waters by an English war vessel is condemned by Mr. Burlingame. It was unwarranted, he contends, to commit such an act previous to referring the circumstance which occasioned it to the highest English authority in Pekin. The London Times takes a somewhat similar view of the matter.

The opposition to the admission of the Georgia Senators seems confined to Gov. Bullock and his personal ad-herents and the colored members who were expelled from the Georgia Legislature on account of their color. Gen. Meade and other prominent Republicans in Georgia, advocate the claims of the Senators elect, and REWARE OF DECEIT.

About 1,000 persons have been thrown out of employment by the disastrous conflagration, in Lynn, Massachusetts.

The quickest passage yet made by a steamer from Honolulu to San Francisco was made in eleven days, by the Idaho, last month.
